

Apple Berry

Billardiera scandens

Apple Berries are purple and grow on a green vine.

Images sourced : <https://commons.wikimedia.org/w/index.php?search=apple+berry&title=Special%3AMediaSearch&type=image>

Plant Facts

Height—0.2 - 1.5 m

Width—1-3 meters

Flowering Time—Spring, All Year

Climate zone— Sub-tropical, warm temperate, cool temperate, and Mediterranean climates

Attracts wildlife—Birds that feed on the nectar from the flowers and eat the fruit, Bees, Butterflies and other insects.

Uses—It can be eaten raw when fully ripe, or roasted if it is still green. They can also be used in sweet and savory dishes like preserves, cakes, and salads.

Interesting Fact— Edible plant and is a honey producing plant. It is fast growing and playground friendly.

Information sourced from: <https://www.anbg.gov.au/gnp/interns-2002/billardiera-scandens.html>

<https://gardeningwithangus.com.au/about-angus/>